Examiner: (Not known)

SPECIAL COMMUNICATION

Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

It was noted on the enclosed copy of Notice to File Missing Parts of Nonprovisional Application that the filing fee for the additional patent claims over 20 had not yet been paid. Applicants respectfully traverse this statement.

As seen on the enclosed true copy of the Patent Application Transmittal Letter accompanying the originally-filed patent application, the four (4) additional claims had been correctly identified and the additional filing fee (4 claims x $18 = $72) properly calculated for same. According to that Transmittal Letter, the Patent Office was authorized to charge the Deposit Account No. 08-2025 of Hewlett-Packard Company for all of the fees ($72 for additional claims + $710 basic fee = $782) identified on that Transmittal Letter.

Moreover, after reviewing the Patent Office transaction log for this Deposit Account in connection with the filing of this patent application, it appears the Patent Office has already charged $18 (one additional claim) in addition to the basic filing fee of $720 to the Deposit Account 08-2025. Why the Patent Office only charged the Deposit Account for one (1) additional claim when it was directed to charge the Deposit Account for all four (4) additional claims is unknown to Applicants. However, Applicants reiterate that any further sums required to pay for the remaining additional claims should still be charged to Deposit No. 08-2025.

If there are any questions about the above, do not hesitate to telephone Applicants' undersigned representative at the below number.

Respectfully submitted,
